

Arthur Vining Davis Fellowships

This information is available in the Faculty Handbook Section III revised 4.12.2023

Three Arthur Vining Davis Fellowships are awarded to faculty each year at Commencement.

Selection Process: Students and faculty are asked to nominate one or more faculty members who have made significant contributions by virtue of "outstanding teaching, scholarly work and publications, completion of significant research projects, accomplishments in the fine arts, important contributions to the educational goals of the College or outstanding contributions to the cultural, economic, and social community of Central Florida." Self-nomination is discouraged.

Nominations - Valid nominations must be accompanied by a narrative explaining the reasons for the nomination of the faculty member.

Final Selection - The final selection committee is convened by the VPAA | Provost (or his/her designee) and includes:

- the outgoing President of the Student Government Association
- the three current Fellows, and the three most recent prior Fellows.
- At least four faculty Fellows must be on the selection committee.

Who is not eligible: Faculty receiving the award within the past five years are ineligible. The Fellowship carries a stipend of $3,000.
