CPY 699: Master Therapist Series

PSY 680: Practicum in Mental Health Counseling

PSY 681: Practicum in School Counseling

PSY 695: Internship in Mental Health Counseling

PSY 696: Internship in School Counseling

CPY 525: Counseling Theories and Practice [3]

This course focuses on the development of fundamental counseling skills. In addition to in-class presentation and skill demonstration, students are involved in laboratory and supervision meetings designed to facilitate skill development. Course content includes counseling process models, critical dimensions of helping, and experiences designed to assist students in the formulation of a personal philosophy system of counseling. Prerequisite: CPY 520.

CPY 530: Theories of Personality [3]

This course examines the major theoretical approaches to personality development and focuses on theorists such as Freud, Adler, Jung, Rogers, Fromm, Skinner, Wolpe, Ellis, Glasser, and others. This course reviews theories, dynamics, and processes of personality and demonstrates how various modes of practice relate to theory.

CPY 538: Psychosocial and Multicultural Theories and Issues [3]

This course is designed to address the social and political context of counseling individuals, families, and groups with diverse identities and social locations. Other areas of investigation include the intersections of race, ethnicity, class, gender, sexual orientation, age physical ability, and the impact of oppression. Intercultural communication patters and multicultural counseling theory and practice are emphasized, along with the role of the counselor as an advocate, ally, and agent of social change. Prerequisite: CPY 525 or permission.

CPY 555: Family and Relationship Counseling: Theory and Therapeutic Modalities [3]

This course is designed to develop specific therapeutic competencies regarding inter- and intra-personal dynamics of family systems and relationships. Communication patterns, role of children, origin of family interaction patterns, conflict resolution styles, impact of treatment issues, and specific modalities of therapeutic intervention are explored. Prerequisite: CPY 550 .

CPY 557: Couples and Marriage Therapy: Theory and Techniques [3]

Theories and associated techniques of couples and marriage counseling will be explored. This course also explores specific developmental issues and social and political factors affecting couples. A range of therapeutical modalities will be surveyed. Prerequisites: CPY 550 and CPY 555.

CPY 565: Individual/Group Assessment and Treatment Planning [3]

Types of educational and psychological appraisal, psychometric statistics and factors influencing appraisals are examined. Assessment techniques, treatment plans, and intervention strategies are developed for specific case studies. Theoretical appraisal bases and methodology are studied http://tars.rollins.edu/holt/graduateschedule/mac/200801/coursedescriptions.shtml[6/29/2010 4:59:20 PM] for data collection, interpretation, and use. These concepts are studied in the context of professional, legal and ethical issues . Lab fee will be assessed. Prerequisite: CPY 515.

CPY 602: Human Growth and Development [3]

This course introduces and examines several theories of human growth, development, and regression. The entire lifespan is explored. Various philosophical perspectives--psychoanalytic, behavioral, humanistic, psycho-social, and organismic-are examined as to their implications for counseling. An analysis is made of developmental behaviors associated with stages of development, environmental, and disruptive influences upon development, and responses of mental health services and practitioners. Normal and abnormal human behavior and development including psychological, sociological, moral and physical factors are addressed. Also included are the cognitive-structural developmental theories concerned with moral, intellectual, and ethical development. Prerequisite: CPY 530 or permission.

CPY 699: Master Therapist Series [0]

During the months of January and February of each year, an eminent scholar/practitioner conducts a one-day seminar designed to integrate the theoretical and practical perspectives of the core areas in the curricula: counseling, consultation, career development, measurement and evaluation, foundations, and professional issues. These seminars must be attended by all students in their final year and are offered on a cost-free, no-credit basis. A final examination or course paper evaluated by the seminar instructor and faculty members is required. The Master Therapist Series is offered in lieu of a comprehensive examination. Therefore, successful completion is a graduation requirement.

PSY 680: Practicum in Mental Health Counseling [3]

Course objectives are to help students develop effective individual and group counseling skills. Students are expected to demonstrate an effective counseling style based upon personal strengths, sound professional principles, and a personally defined philosophy and system of counseling. This course involves on-site experience (minimum of 15 of which are on site), individual supervision by faculty, and weekly seminars. Students must apply and be approved to register for this course. Lab fee will be assessed. Prerequisites: CPY 510 , CPY 520, CPY 535 , CPY 545, CPY 565 , PSY 551 (may be taken concurrently).

PSY 681: Practicum in School Counseling [3]

Similar in purpose to PSY 680 the practical experience is obtained in a school setting (10 hours per week at a school). Lab fee will be assessed. Prerequisites: CPY 505, CPY 520, CPY 535, CPY 545, CPY 565.

PSY 695: Internship in a Mental Health Setting [5]

This course provides students the opportunity to perform under supervision a variety of activities regularly employed professional staff perform in a mental health setting. Internships extend from fall through spring terms to accrue the required 1000 hours [Note: up to 350 hours from the practicum may be used towards the 1000 hours.] Participation in on-campus group supervision and seminars and individual supervision by faculty and site are required. Students must apply and be approved to enter this portion of the degree program. Prerequisite: completion of all coursework.

PSY 696: Internship in School Counseling [5]

This course involves 600 hours of which 240 hours are direct client contact; the remaining hours are comprised of a variety of activities conducted by school counselors, participation in on-campus group supervision and seminars, and individual supervision by faculty and the site supervisor . Students must apply and be approved to enter this portion of the degree program. Prerequisite: completion of all coursework.

Refund and Withdrawal Policies and Deadlines

Withdrawal deadlines are strictly enforced by the Hamilton Holt School. Tuition refunds for withdrawals after the stated deadline will not be granted for:

change in job assignment (duties, hours, travel, etc.)

change in financial aid status and/or eligibility if not reported in writing to the Holt Office by the end of the first week of classes lack of prerequisite knowledge or coursework personal or family crisis or illness

relocation out of the area temporary duty assignment or transfer by the military

Withdrawal exceptions are extremely rare and may be granted only by the Director of the Graduate Education Program.

Withdrawal and refund deadlines will differ for courses offered on an intensive format. Generally, 50% for withdrawal before the second scheduled class meeting.

EDU 567: Inclusive Schools and Communities

EED 560: Laboratory in Elementary School Music

EED 561: Laboratory in Elementary School Art

EED 568: Language Arts and Content Area Instruction

EDU 500: Pre-Internship Field Experience [1]

Provides an opportunity for students planning to teach to gain insight into the education process as it exists in the schools. The course consists of two components: 1) directed observation and field experience which requires a student to spend a minimum of 60 hours in an assigned school; 2) development and practice of specific skills in the following areas: Communication Skills, Analyzing Classroom Verbal Interaction, Classroom Management, Analyzing Classroom Leadership Styles, Writing Behavioral Objectives, Developing Lesson Plans. Course is required for all students in programs leading to elementary certification.

EDU 501: Sociological Foundations of Education [3]

A study of the social, political, economic, and historical background of the contemporary American school system. This course demonstrates how social forces have shaped the curriculum, organization, and purposes of formal education. Three ESOL themes (cultural diversity, linguistics, and curriculum and methods) are introduced in this course and noted on the syllabus with *ESOL.

EDU 512: Instructional Strategies for Diverse Learners [3]

This course examines current and emerging school programs found in grades 1-6. Topics include learner diversity, planning, and delivery of instruction and assessment procedures. ESOL (English to speakers of other languages) infused course.

EDU 522: Instructional Strategies for Diverse Secondary Learners [3]

Examines current and emerging school programs found in grades 6-12. Topics include the impact of technology, student diversity, and accountability on curriculum. Prospects for curriculum and assessment reform, and the relation of curriculum design to teaching methods will be addressed. ESOL (English to speakers of other languages) infused course.

EDU 533: Student Teaching: Elementary [9]

A student teaching internship offered at the elementary level. A nine-semester-hour experience requiring teaching in a public or private school. This course requires prior application to the director of student teaching (deadlines for each term are published). This experience is fully explained in the student teaching handbook available from Graduate Studies.

EDU 534: Student Teaching: Secondary [9]

A student teaching internship offered at the secondary level. A nine-semester-hour experience requiring teaching in a public or private school. This course requires prior application to the Director of Student Teaching (deadlines for each term are published). This experience is fully explained in the Student Teaching Handbook available from Graduate Studies.

EDU 535: Content Area Reading in Secondary Schools [3]

All teachers are teachers of reading. This course is designed to provide background information for secondary teachers in the content areas including the reading process, strategy instruction, and diagnosis of reading problems. Pre-service teachers will be provided with a variety of strategies to promote an understanding of content area materials.

EDU 540: Beginning Teacher Competencies [3]

A survey of the competencies found in the six domains of the FPMS: planning, classroom management, organization of instruction, presentation of knowledge, communication, and evaluation of student progress. Students have the opportunity to practice these competencies and to use the observation instruments of FPMS. Concurrent with EDU 533 or EDU 534.

EDU 567: Inclusive Schools and Communities [3]

Offers the student a first-hand look at the process of screening, referring, evaluating, and placing school-age learners in educational settings where they can benefit most from the educational services available to them under the law. Emphasis is placed on the inclusive school and community, where disabled and nondisabled learners are educated together in classrooms, and educational services are brought to the classroom instead of bringing the learners to the services. Strategies for successful collaboration and inclusion are included.

EED 560: Laboratory in Elementary School Music [2]

A workshop covering the basic concepts, literature, and methods for teaching music in the elementary grades. Vocal and instrumental music are included, and the course stresses the use of music to provide creative experiences.

EED 561: Laboratory in Elementary School Art [2]

Focuses on how art can be used to foster child development and supplement learning in the curricular areas. Related topics include sensory experiences, aesthetics and aesthetic education, managing a classroom art center, and the adult's role in child art. Participants directly experience an array of artistic media and conduct art activities with children.

EED 568: Language Arts and Content Area Instruction [3]

This course presents strategies for teaching the four areas of language arts: reading, writing, listening and speaking. Emphasis on the importance of integrating reading and content area instruction. Strategies for diverse learners will be implemented in an original unit of instruction designed by the student based on best practices of a balanced reading classroom. ESOL (English to speakers of other languages) infused course.

MASTER IN HUMAN RESOURCES

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS SPRING 2008

Calendar

Schedule of Classes

Syllabi

Descriptions of courses offered through the graduate programs of the Hamilton Holt School are listed alphabetically by prefix, and then numerically. Note that all courses are not offered every term. See the term schedule of classes for term offering.

MHR 505: Training and Development [4]

Human Resource Development (HRD) deals with the personal and professional enhancement of employees. Topics covered include needs assessment, designing an employee development program, methods of adult education and training, career and life planning issues, and developing employee skills to meet the needs of future organizations.

MHR 510: Organizational Change and Development [4]

Organization Development (OD) is the process of applying social science principles to the workplace to bring about planned organizational change. Focuses on developing new approaches to organizational problems and providing for the psychological well being of organizational members. Addresses interventions at the personal, group, and system levels.

MHR 543: Employee Relations [4]

Examines common approaches to employee-centered issues. Explores company responses to problems in workplace laws and regulations regarding hiring and firing, personnel practices, wage and hour requirements, employee benefits, family and medical leave, health and safety, illegal discrimination, workers with disabilities, termination, employee privacy, independent contractors, and unions.

MHR 553: Employment and Labor Law [4]

Analyzes state and federal regulations of human resource decision-making. Significant attention will be devoted to specific employment and labor laws. The course focuses on the identification and application of legal, ethical, and regulatory issues in formulating and implementing policies.

MHR 557: Compensation Management [4]

The design and administration of compensation and benefit packages. Course content includes financial analysis of compensation packages, economics of compensation, executive compensation, mandated benefits, and control of costs. The course will be taught from a managerial perspective focusing on issues of equity, incentive, and risk.

MLS 540M: Engaged Buddhism: What the Buddha Taught [1.34]

Buddhism has always been transformed by culture and context while retaining the essence of the original teachings. In recent years, Buddhist scholars and practitioners worldwide have recognized that the spiritual tradition must be able to respond to twenty-first century issues and problems arising from globalization and other contemporary social and political concerns, such as structural violence and oppression. This course will include an overview of the “basics” of Buddhism, then move on to examine the newly emerging discourses in engaged Buddhism, where the focus expands from attainment of enlightenment as an individual or collective process to include responsibility for the transformation of society based on social justice-based Buddhist frameworks. Please be prepared to learn and practice Buddhist meditation and to take one or two field trips.

MLS 575M: How Keynes Saved Free Market Capitalism from Itself [1.34]

This course will look at some of the more accessible writings by and about the most important economic thinker of the last 100 years: John Maynard Keynes (1883-1946)--brilliant writer, bisexual, political insider, economic polemicist, and a founding member of the Bloomsbury Group ( including the novelist Virginia Woolf and her siblings) of artists, scholars, and advocates of modernism, sexual libertarianism, world government, and pacifism. Keynes’ ideas have become much of the conventional wisdom about how to manage a modern capitalist economy; when economies misbehave around the world, his ideas are still those which governments—both liberal or conservative—use as a guide for trying to “fix” economies when they fail. We will read a selection of his writings about capitalist economies and economic depressions, and some excerpts from the many works about his life. We will also see how his ideas still dominate discussions of how to manage capitalisms around the world.

MLS 583: Modern Theories of Personality [4]

This course will look at psychological theories of human nature. We will read and discuss the major theories of personality as represented by Freud, Jung, Skinner, Rogers, Erikson, and others. We will also complete personality measures and interpret the results. The class will be run on a humanistic model in which students take responsibility for their own learning.

MLS 584: Existentialism [4]

For many people, the optimism of human progress based on technological progress was dashed with the sinking of the Titanic, the grueling trench warfare of World War I and the inhumanity of World War II. These experiences opened up questions about objectivity, the meaning of life, the basis of values, and the nature of the self. This course will examine the alternative theories/approaches offered in Existentialism and Phenomenology, tackling such philosophers as Nietzsche, Kierkegaard, Sartre, Jaspers, Husserl, and Heidegger.

MLS 603: Religion and Western Culture [4]

The core course about Religion in Western Culture will examine the roles of religion in stirring and building community, initiating Holy War and fostering causes of peace.

MLS 605: Milestones of Modern Science [4]

Science has always been concerned with the search for order, whether it be to explain the starry phenomena in the night sky, the diversity of substances like rocks, water, and wind, or the nature of our own origins. This course pursues the pathways of science since the seventeenth century, concentrating on some of the exceptional ideas in biology and physics, with excursions into chemistry and mathematics. We study how the accumulation of knowledge acquired by technical tools and extraordinary thinking fabricates a new view of the universe and indicates our place in it.

MLS 690: Seminar in Liberal Studies/Thesis Project [4]

|  | The culmination of the degree program is the completion of a thesis project. Working under the direction of a faculty mentor and with the support of a liberal studies seminar, students apply the knowledge they have acquired in the program in designing and executing a final project. The project may be a research study or a creative work supported by a critical or theoretical essay. Back to top - - - Information posted on the Rollins College Hamilton Holt School Web site is intended as general information only.
