Summer 2008

Descriptions below pertain to the Summer 2008 term only. Please see the Graduate Studies Catalog for a complete list of descriptions.

Calendar

Schedule of Classes

Syllabi

CPY 535 Career and Lifestyle Development [3]

Theories of career and lifestyle development, counseling approaches, and applications to the diversity of work settings are studied. Lifespan career program planning, changing roles of men and women, dual-career families, and decision making theories are addressed. The interrelationship of work, family, and leisure along with relevant assessment instruments, career counseling resources, and information systems are included. Also included are major issues which impact career choices and work settings such as addictions, family issues, mobility of people and work settings, and other relevant concerns. Prerequisite: CPY 525 or permission.

CPY 540 Theory and Practice of Group Counseling [3]

This course is designed to train students in the fundamental concepts and skills necessary to lead counseling and therapy groups. Course activities include lecture, demonstration, discussion of assigned readings, and experience as member and leader in simulated counseling and therapy groups. Prerequisites: CPY 525, CPY 530.

CPY 545 Legal, Professional, and Ethical Issues in Counseling [3]

This course examines ethical and legal standards, their evolution, methods of change, and applications to various professional activities. Prerequisite: CPY 525 or permission.

CPY 560 Counseling and Consultation in Community Settings [3]

This course explores various methodologies for providing mental health services in a diverse community. The scope of services involves level of intervention (primary, secondary, and tertiary) and organization and management of services. Included are strategies for needs assessment, program design and program evaluation. Various models of consultation, supervision, and advocacy are examined. Prerequisites: CPY 515, CPY 525.

CPY 601 Human Sexuality: Therapy, Counseling Theory and Techniques [3]

A lifespan developmental approach is applied to the study of human sexuality. Medical and psycho-social aspects of sexual function are addressed. Course topics include physical, psychological, and social development; gender, sex-role orientation and preference; sex therapy theories and techniques; current sexual life-styles; sexual dysfunction; relationship issues; AIDS and other sexually transmitted diseases; sexual deviance, rape, and incest; and family dysfunction. Prerequisite: CPY 530 or permission.

CPY 603 Addictive Disorders [3]

This course includes research and theories of substance use and abuse as well as principles and practices for the assessment, diagnosis, and treatment of substance abuse and addiction. The diversity of addictions is studied including dual diagnoses and interrelationship of addictive modalities. Students will develop specific strategies for working with addictive clients, knowledge about referral resources, and promotion of responsible behavior.

GRADUATE EDUCATION

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Summer 2008

Descriptions below pertain to the Summer 2008 term only. Please refer to the Graduate Studies Catalog for a complete list of course descriptions.

Calendar

Schedule of Classes

Syllabi

EDU 509: Foundations of Reading [3]

This is the introductory course in the reading sequence. The course covers the theoretical models of reading, emergent literacy, phonics instruction, and the reading/writing connections. A balanced approach to reading instruction is emphasized.

EDU 536: Research in Education [3]

An analysis of the current issues in education. Topics for discussion may include technology in the classroom, current curricular trends, important educational research results, and others. A formal search of the literature is required. Each student may choose his/her own area of interest to research. M.Ed. students conduct a study with elementary students.

EDU 580: The Multicultural Classroom: Issues in Cross-Cultural Communication and Understanding [3]

Examines cultural pluralism in the classroom: multicultural education, diversity and teaching, bilingual education, racism, tracking, and teacher preparation. This course is a designated ESOL stand-alone certification course in the Department of Education and is intended to meet the competencies and skills that are required for Teacher Certification in Florida.

EDU 599: Classroom Management [1.5]

Teaches prevention or solution of problems through management of classroom, children, and curriculum. Reviews techniques to move children from external to internal control. Video observations and critiques, reading and sharing of ideas, and the development of a classroom management notebook may be incorporated into a seminar-type format.

EED 569: Literature for the Elementary School Child [3]

This course immerses students in authentic literature appropriate for elementary grade reading instruction. Students will become familiar with a variety of major children's authors and illustrators, the genres of children's literature, recent research in the field, and techniques for the effective use of children's literature in the classroom. Emphasis on strategies appropriate for responding to literature and participating in literature circles.

MASTER IN HUMAN RESOURCES

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

SUMMER 2008

Calendar

Schedule of Classes

Syllabi

Descriptions of courses offered through the graduate programs of the Hamilton Holt School are listed alphabetically by prefix, and then numerically. Note that all courses are not offered every term.

MHR 522: Organizational Psychology [4]

Foundations for understanding individual and group behavior with applications to managerial problem solving. Topics will include individual behavior, perception, motivation, group behavior, group dynamics, leadership, communication, and stress.

MHR 591: SHRM National Conference [4]

This course is designed to help students explore the concept of continuing professional education (Life Long Learning) in their context of the Society for Human Resource Management's Annual Professional Conference. Prior to the conference we will meet to develop conference plans. During the conference we will meet daily to discuss what people are learning. After the conference, each student will write a reflection on his or her participation and learning. Note: Prior approval required before registration period. Students should contact the program coordinator prior to registration to avoid delays in registering.

MHR 610: Managing the Human Resource Department [4]

This course looks at the field of human resources from a department leadership perspective. Using the case method, students will develop a problem solving approach to issues that affect organizational effectiveness and employee development.

MASTER OF LIBERAL STUDIES

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS SUMMER 2008

Calendar

Schedule of Classes

Syllabi

Descriptions of courses offered through the graduate programs of the Hamilton Holt School are listed alphabetically by prefix, and then numerically. Note that all courses are not offered every term.

MLS 540: Family Values? [4]

Taking an interdisciplinary approach, this course will explore the origins and modern condition of the family. We will examine the historical background of the family, looking in particular at the impact of industrialization and urbanization on family structure, marriage, divorce, sex, gender roles, and child-rearing practices. Finally, through the use of fiction and film, we will discuss current concepts about the family versus its contemporary reality

MLS 576M: Scott Fitzgerald's Tender is the Night [1.34]

This Masterworks course examines F. Scott Fitzgerald's fourth novel, Tender Is the Night. In the early stages of drafting the text the author describes it to his editor, Maxwell Perkins, as "something really NEW in form, idea, structure." We will investigate the context of the novel in these terms, discuss its merits and deficits against both the author's personal canon as well as the American canon, the era the novel represents, and its relevance to the decade in which it was published.

MLS 577M: Florida Biography: Sense of Place in a State of Dreams [1.34]

A quarter of a century of intense urbanization has made Orlando one of the United States most ethnically diverse and "sprawl threatened cities." Riveting potential and impinging chaos are constants and, in turn, Central Florida has become a vital laboratory for reconfiguring the American Dream. A group of Rollins faculty will explore Florida's history, politics, literature, and environment to reveal what lessons from this region portend for the future of the state and nation. A mandatory field trip is required.

MLS 585: Religion and Politics in America [4]

This course will examine some of the most contentious issues in the area of religion and politics in America. Focusing on Protestant, Roman Catholic, and Jewish religions and Enlightenment philosophy, we will look at the relationship between politics, religion, and morality; civil disobedience; the "sacred texts" of America; America as a "Christian nation;" and the role of religious voices in shaping public policy in the United States. Our texts will range from theology to secular philosophy through modernity up to our present postmodernrn debates regarding the place of religion in democracy.
