

Minor Map: English

Effective Fall 2019

The Department of English curriculum offers a flexible and challenging set of opportunities that allows all students to experience a wide range of approaches to literature, writing, and media. The goal of the curriculum is to provide a developmental path, emphasizing skills that will serve majors beyond graduation. The diversity in our course offerings provides each student the opportunity to create an individualized program that reflects her/his interests and passions.

Students minoring in English are required to complete the following program of courses. A minimum of six (6) courses is required and must include two (2) courses at the 200 level, and three (3) courses at the 300 level or above.
